Published: February 9th, 2010

A renovated warehouse that housed a leasing company in Northeast Portland is now a new space for Owen Equipment Company. The one-story, 16,000-square-foot structure at 13101 N.E. Whitaker Way will serve as a truck maintenance facility for specialized industrial vacuum trucks that work on sewer and storm-water systems. Redside Construction is the general contractor and SUM Design Studio is the architect for the project.
